

Planning permission obtained for Hertford development

Haines Phillips recently obtained planning permission for a mixed-use development on a prominent corner site in Hertford.

The design consists of a café at ground floor with 14 residential apartments above up to fifth floor level.

