

Stanley Haines, Partner

Stanley is now senior partner of Haines Phillips Architects having previously been with Andrews Downie and Partners for twenty five years, seventeen of those as a partner. Stanley specializes in larger residential projects, both new build and conversions, and has been involved with housing design throughout his career.

His housing work has been awarded numerous RIBA, Civic Trust and Local Awards and Commendations. His expertise runs through all aspects of housing including projects for housing associations, volume house builders, smaller developers, private clients as well as retirement housing specialists.

Recently a considerable amount of his work has been in adapting listed buildings to residential use and he is now a registrant on the RIBA Conservation Architects Register. He was a former assessor for the Civic Trust and has been a What House judge since 1999.

